

WEEK 13 JOURNAL QUESTIONS

Journal—Mon., April 18—The Urban Preservation Movement

Hodder, "Savannah's Changing Past" *

1. Describe the evolution of the historic preservation movement in Savannah. Why did the movement change in the years Hodder analyzes?

Journal—Wed., April 20—The Suburbanization of the City—Gentrification

Menking, "From Tribeca to Triburbia" *

Smith, "New City, New Frontier" *

1. How do Menking and Smith treat the issue of gentrification in Manhattan? How has discontent about gentrification manifested itself in the ways that New Yorkers reacted to changes in their neighborhoods? Do you feel that the benefits of gentrification outweigh the costs, or vice versa? Why?

Journal—Fri., April 22—The Entertainment City

Bloom, Merchant of Illusion, 150-180

Souther, "Making 'America's Most Interesting City'" *

1. How did tourism reshape New Orleans between 1940 and 1984, and in what way does the Bloom reading help you see a broader context for what was happening in New Orleans in the 1970s and 1980s?
