Directions: Please answer all questions on the provided answer sheet.

1. Put the following events that have occurred along the Ohio and Erie Canalway in chronological order.
   I. Barges full of goods and settlers II. Northern Ohio becomes the industrial engine of the nation III. Isolation of Ohio from mainstream America economics IV. Blossom Music Center built between Akron and Cleveland

   A. I, II, III, IV
   B. I, IV, II, III
   C. III, IV, I, II
   D. III, I, II, IV

2. Which of the following was one of the major grains marketed throughout the country for which the City of Akron became famous?
   A. Soybeans
   B. Corn
   C. Oats
   D. Flax seed

3. Which of the following were major natural resources of Ohio that the growing young nation of the United States of America needed?
   a. Lumber
   b. Building stone
   c. Coal
   d. All of the above

4. Development of the Ohio & Erie Canal had a major social effect on the region which was:
   a. Peace and prosperity for all
   b. Racial and ethnic conflict
   c. Native American prosperity
   d. Judaism became major religion of area

5. With the construction of the Ohio & Erie Canal in 1825, which of the following explains the attraction for new settlers to the region?
   a. Growth of steel mills for employment
   b. Discovery of gold in northern Ohio streams
   c. Rich, fertile farmland
   d. Growing textile industry 6. John Brown was a famous participant in what historical event in the civic and political life of America?
   a. Westward Movement
   b. Federalism
   c. Ku Klux Klan
   d. Abolitionism

7. What was the major political consequence of the development of canals, railroads and highways in America?
   a. Transformation of election campaigns
   b. Establishment of religion
   c. Restriction of speech
   d. Industrialization

8. The changes in land, air and water use along the Ohio & Erie Canalway was a major force in the development of what 20th Century movement?
   a. Abolition of slavery
   b. Asian immigration
   c. Environmental protection
   d. Religious fundamentalism

9. Which of the following has led to the development of the multi-cultural characteristic of northeastern Ohio?
   a. Settlers from diverse countries of the world
   b. Diverse religious practices and customs
   c. Diverse arts traditions
   d. All of the above

10. Using the graph below, what happened to the tons of materials that were arriving in Cleveland via the Ohio & Erie Canal?

!Graph showing canal commerce arrivals in Cleveland from 1850 to 1859.

   a. Canal commerce increased gradually over this time period.
   b. Canal commerce increased until 1853 and then decreased
   c. Canal commerce stayed the same over this time period
   d. Canal commerce decreased gradually over this time period