

Participant Release

Accents Oral History Project

Thank you for participating in the Accents Oral History Project conducted by students taking the Local History Seminar (HIS 400) at Cleveland State University. CSU and ideastreamsm are partnering together on this project.

For Cleveland State University:

By signing the form below you give your permission to include any tapes, notes, and/or photographs made as part of this interview to be used in the completion of the course project. Any materials and/or notes from this interview will be archived by the instructor for a period of at least one year. The products of this interview will be available to other students/faculty for educational purposes, for inclusion of broadcasts on ideastreamsm, and for possible use in accompanying program materials on the Internet. The material will not be used for commercial purposes.

For ideastreamsm:

I hereby authorize WCPN and/or WVIZ/PBS to record my appearance and/or related materials (including but not limited to photographs, notes, tapes, art work, etc.) and to edit these recordings at its discretion, to incorporate these recordings into a television broadcast, radio broadcast or website and to use and license other public broadcast entities to use such recordings in any appropriate manner, including unrestricted use for purposes of publicity. I further acknowledge that WCPN and/or WVIZ/PBS owns all rights to the aforementioned recordings. I hereby agree to indemnify WCPN and/or WVIZ/PBS for all loss, damage and liability whatsoever arising out of my appearance.
