Thank you for participating in the Euclid Corridor Oral History Project, a partnership between CSU, ideastream℠, and Cleveland Public Art.

For Cleveland State University and Cleveland Public Art
By signing the form below you give your permission to include any tapes, notes, and/or photographs made as part of this interview to be used in the completion of the course project. Any materials and/or notes from this interview will be archived by the instructor and university for a minimum period of five years. The products of this interview will be available to other students/faculty for educational purposes, for inclusion in broadcasts on ideastream℠, for use in the creation or development of public art by Cleveland Public Art and its agents for use in the Euclid Corridor Transportation Project, and for use in accompanying program materials on the Internet.

For ideastream℠:
I hereby authorize WCPN, WVIZ/PBS, Cleveland State University, and Cleveland Public Art to record my appearance and/or related materials (including but not limited to photographs, notes, tapes, art work, etc.) and to edit these recordings at their discretion, to incorporate these recordings into a television broadcast, radio broadcast or website and to use and license other public broadcast entities to use such recordings in any appropriate manner, including unrestricted use for purposes of publicity. I further acknowledge that WCPN, WVIZ/PBS, and Professors Tebeau and Souther own all rights to the aforementioned recordings. I hereby agree to indemnify and to hold harmless WCPN, WVIZ/PBS, Cleveland State University, Cleveland Public Art, and their agents, for all loss, damage and liability whatsoever arising out of my appearance.
