Below is the list of interview questions, which will be used to interview the President of the Cleveland Cultural Gardens Federation. Use this as a model for other interview.

1) How long have you been president of the Federation?

2) Why did you get involved with the gardens?

3) Do you see yourself identifying with the Greek or American Garden, and why?

4) Has commitment to peace/brotherhood withstood the test of time? Would you give me an example?

5) How does the CCGF currently fund itself?

6) Has there been an estimate of what it would cost an individual Garden or the Federation to bring gardens back to life? How would this money be raised? Does the federated nature of the Gardens’ organization complicate bringing them back to life?

7) How safe are the Gardens?

8) When will the Gardens become a national landmark?

9) Do you foresee another golden age in the Gardens future, similar to the time proceeding WW II where the Gardens were embraced and celebrated?

10) Is the neglect lifting?

11) Currently what is being done to promote the Gardens to the people of Cleveland?

12) For many years the park has talked about a renewal of the parks, what has happened to these proposals?

13) During Mayor Voinovich’s terms, he tried to involve Cleveland’s youth in the revitalization process of the Gardens. Do you foresee any plans to involve our youth today?

14) How is the current revitalization different than previous efforts?

15) What statues do you think could be added or should be added to federation members as a way of breathing life into the gardens?

16) The Slovenian gardens are having a campaign to raise money for statues, are they’re any other groups doing activities similar to raise money? Could you refer us to anyone who may know more on this subject?
