CONTENTS

Foreword
by Leslie King-Hammond ............................................. 4

Curatorial and Advisory Committees ................................. 7

African American Photographers of Cleveland, 1930-1965
by Samuel W. Black .............................................. 9

On Fertile Ground
The African American Experience of Artists
Associated With Cleveland’s Karamu House
by Alfred L. Bright ............................................. 23

Creativity in a Time of Social Change
by Pamela McKee ............................................... 41

Artist Biographies .................................................. 54

Bibliography .......................................................... 86

Authors ................................................................. 88

Acknowledgements .................................................. 90

Lenders ................................................................. 92

Index of Works of Art by Artist ................................... 93