CONTENTS

Introduction
William Busta
Page 1

‘Painting Your Own Country’:
The American Impressionists at Home
H. Barbara Weinberg
Page 2

Designing Women in the Cleveland School of Art
Marianne Berger Woods
Page 13

Cowan Pottery and the “Art in Industry” Movement in Cleveland
Mark Bassett and Victoria Naumann
Page 23

Toward an American Self: Charles Burchfield’s Early Years in Salem, Ohio, and at the Cleveland School of Art
Helen A. Weinberg
Page 40

Laukhuff’s Bookstore, Cleveland’s Literary and Artistic Landmark
Gladys Haddad
Page 45

Romancing the Flats: Cleveland Artists, 1920-1995
Ruth Dancyger
Page 54

An Overview of the City Beautiful Movement as Reflected in Daniel Burnham’s Vision
Richard Klein
Page 61

Richard Anuszkiewicz: An Artist Whose Vision Born in Cleveland
Lead the Way To OP Art and Beyond
Curlee Raven Holton
Page 65

Richard Anuszkiewicz in Context
Robert Saltonstall Mattison
Page 70
Celebrating Entrepreneurial Identities: James F. Ryder, Cleveland and the National Photographic Scene, 1870-1900
Geraldine Wojno Kiefer
Page 74

Cleveland Photographers of the 1920s and 1930s:
Jobs and Assignments
Richard Karberg
Page 88

African American Photographers:
Researching Image Makers of Yesterday
Samuel W. Black
Page 93

Authors
Page 102

Cleveland Artists Foundation